

Chrome DevTools cheat sheet

Opening DevTools

F12 or Ctrl + Shift + I	Open whatever panel you used last
Ctrl + Shift + J	Open the Console panel

Global shortcuts

These shortcuts are available in most DevTools panels.

F1 or ?	Show settings
Ctrl + ]	Focus the next panel
Ctrl + [	Focus the previous panel
Ctrl + Shift + D	Switch back to whatever docking position you last used
Ctrl + Shift + M	Toggle Device Mode
Ctrl + Shift + C	Toggle Inspect Element mode
Ctrl + Shift + P	Open the Command Menu
Esc	Toggle the drawer
F5 or Ctrl + R	Normal reload
Ctrl + F5 or Ctrl + Shift + R	Hard reload
Ctrl + F	Search for text within the current panel
Ctrl + Shift + F	Open Search tab in the Drawer, which lets you search for text across all loaded resources
Ctrl + O or Ctrl + P	Open a file in the Sources panel
Ctrl + Shift + +	Zoom in
Ctrl + Shift + -	Zoom out
Ctrl + 0	Restore default zoom level
Ctrl + O	then type ! followed by the name of the script, then press Enter: Run snippet

Elements panel

Ctrl + Z	Undo change
Ctrl + Y	Redo change
Up arrow / Down arrow	Select the element above / below the currently-selected element
Right arrow	Expand the currently-selected node. If the node is already expanded, this shortcut selects the element below it

Left arrow	Collapse the currently-selected node. If the node is already expanded, this shortcut selects the element above it
Ctrl + Left click	(on the arrow icon next to the elements name) Expand or collapse the currently-selected node and all of its children
Enter	Toggle Edit Attributes mode on currently-selected element
Tab or Shift + Tab	Select the next / previous attribute after entering Edit Attributes mode
H	Hide the currently selected element
F2	Toggle Edit as HTML mode on the currently-selected element

Styles pane

Ctrl + Left click	(on the property value) Go to the line where a property value is declared
Shift + Left click	(on the Color Preview box) Cycle through the RGBA, HSLA, and Hex representations of a color value
Tab or Shift + Tab	Use this shortcut after clicking property name or value to select the next / previous property or value
Alt + Up arrow / Down arrow	Use this shortcut after clicking a value to increment / decrement a property value by 0.1
Up arrow / Down arrow	Use this shortcut after clicking a value to increment / decrement a property value by 1
Shift + Up arrow / Down arrow	Use this shortcut after clicking a value to increment / decrement a property value by 10
Shift + Up arrow / Down arrow	Use this shortcut after clicking a value to increment / decrement a property value by 100

Sources panel

F8 or Ctrl + \	Pause script execution or resume
F10 or Ctrl + '	Step over next function or call
F11 or Ctrl + ;	Step into next function call
Shift + F11 or Ctrl + Shift + ;	Step out of current function
Ctrl + . or Ctrl + ,	Select the call frame below / above the currently-selected frame
Ctrl + S	Save changes to local modifications
Ctrl + Alt + S	Save all changes
Ctrl + G	Go to line
Ctrl + O	then type : followed by the line number then press Enter: Jump to a line number of the currently-open file
Ctrl + O	then type : followed by the line number then another: then column number then press Enter: Jump to a column of the currently-open file
Ctrl + Shift + O	then type in the name of the declaration / rule set, or select it from the list of options: Go to a function declaration (if currently-open file is HTML or a script), or a rule set (if currently-open file is a stylesheet)
Alt + W	Close the active tab

Code Editor

Ctrl + Del	Delete all characters in the last word, up to the cursor
Ctrl + B	(when cursor is focused on the line) Add or remove a line-of-code breakpoint
Ctrl + M	Go to matching bracket
Ctrl + /	Toggle single-line comment. If multiple lines are selected, DevTools adds a comment to the start of each line
Ctrl + D or Ctrl + U	Select / de-select the next occurrence of whatever word the cursor is on. Each occurrence is highlighted simultaneously

Performance panel

Ctrl + E	Start / stop recording
Ctrl + S	Save recording
Ctrl + O	O Load recording

Memory panel

Ctrl + E	Start / stop recording
----------	------------------------

Console panel

Right arrow or Tab	Accept autocomplete suggestion
Esc	Reject autocomplete suggestion
Up arrow	Get previous statement
Down arrow	Get next statement
Ctrl + `	Focus the console
Ctrl + L	Clear the console
Shift + Enter	Force a multi-line entry. Note that DevTools should detect multi-line scenarios by default, so this shortcut is now usually unnecessary

Enter      Execute

Hold Alt then click Expand to expand all sub-properties of an object that's been logged to the console.

Source: Chrome DevTools Keyboard Shortcuts Reference

Last modification: 11/11/2019 8:10:19 PM

More information: defkey.com/chrome-devtools-shortcuts

Customize this PDF...